BLACK SHIELD of 15 October 1967

BLACK SHIELD mission 6728 was flown over the panhandle area of North Vietnam and the DMZ on 15 October. Extensive cloudiness limited clear coverage to about ten percent of the photographed areas of North Vietnam.

No surface-to-surface missile activity was noted. No North Vietnamese heavy artillery sites or associated activity were observed in the Con Thien area. None of the bridges and railyards included on the CIA priority requirements list for bomb damagement assessment were covered, although some other bridges in the panhandle area were photographed.

Seven SA-2sites--including one new site in the Thanh Hoa area--were photographed. No occupied sites were identified, but coverage of four of the sites was not clear enough to determine occupancy.

Some road construction activity in Laos was photographed, but has not been read out yet.

Note: Because of the small intelligence return from this mission, we do not plan to publish an assessment.
